INDIAN RIVER COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE ARREST AFFIDAVIT 4055 41st Ave Vero Beach, Florida 32960	Arrest Affidavit Report Case Report # 2026-00105112

NARRATIVE

On November 5, 2026, at approximately 0850 hours, I responded to the Indian River County Sheriff's Office located at 4055 41st Avenue, Vero Beach, FL in reference to a SEARCH call for service.

Upon arrival, I made contact with Rollington Cox Jr. in the lobby of the Sheriff's Office. Cox advised he was there to turn himself in on a warrant issued for his arrest. I requested Cox's ID and his formation was given to dispatch to confirm the warrant. Once the warrant was confirmed, Cox was taken into custody and transported to the Indian River County Jail.

At the jail Cox was turned to jail staff for further processing and served his warrant (case # 312026CF001188AXXXVB). The warrant advised Cox had a bond of $3,500.

The incident was captured on my Axon body-worn camera.

NARRATIVE

On 11/05/2026 at 08:27 am I Deputy Hart conducted a traffic stop on a Silver F-150 bearing Florida tag MAK6 at 10950 County Road 512. I activated all of my emergency equipment (lights and sirens). The primary reason for the stop was window tint on the windshield of the truck. It was clearly visible the windshield was tinted below the AS1 line. When I approached the vehicle on the passenger side, I gave orders for the driver to roll down the windows but they didn't. I could still hear music in the vehicle and see movement in the vehicle. I also attempted to open the doors but the doors were locked. I then asked for another unit to back me up and updated dispatch on the situation. I backed up to my patrol vehicle for cover and could see the silhouette of a person moving in the vehicle. The movement appeared to be someone trying to lay down and conceal themselves.

Several orders were given over the PA system in English and Spanish for the driver to exit the vehicle and they wouldn't comply. When more units arrived, we were able to make a safe approach to the vehicle to break out the rear window. We then deploy pepper balls inside the vehicle through the broken window. Several more orders were given and the driver finally opened the rear driver side door of the vehicle. Several more orders were given for the driver to exit and they were also informed they were under arrest. They still didn't exit and were warned about the possibility of being bit by a K9.

The driver still refused to exit and the K9 was deployed after more pepper ball deployments. She was placed in custody and the vehicle was cleared and no one was else was located in the vehicle.

The driver of the vehicle was the registered owner, Maria Prieto who I identified by her image in DAVID. Upon running Maria through FCIC/NCIC it showed she had several suspensions on her license as of 06/10/2026 and 07/13/2026.

REPORTING OFFICER & ID #
Sides, Rachel D17 Det. Rachel Sides

NARRATIVE

On November 4, 2026, I, Detective Rachel Sides was assigned to follow up on this case in reference to a possible domestic violence disturbance.

At approximately 1100 hours, I was contacted by Lieutenant Haas who stated he had been on the phone with the victim, [redacted] in reference to an incident that occurred on November 3, 2026. Lieutenant Haas stated under case #26-119257, deputies responded for an accidental discharge of a firearm after speaking with [redacted] he believed there was more to the incident involving domestic violence.

At approximately 1140 hours, I made phone contact with the victim, [redacted] As I started talking to her, she stated the suspect, Nicholas Schneider was asking to also be on the call [redacted] then patched him through so it was a three-way phone call before I could advise her against it. When Nicholas got on the line, I made up an excuse and hung up the phone, I then called back moments later and asked if it was okay to talk with only her. [redacted] stated she didn't have much time before he called back again [redacted] agreed to meet me the following day at 1300 hours.

On November 5, 2026, at approximately 1315 hours, a victims advocate and myself made contact with [redacted] at her place of residence located at [redacted] was visibly shaken and asked multiple times if I could turn off my body worn camera. [redacted] stated since then he has made her quit her job, stop communicating with certain friends, has access to her phone and frequently looks through it, consistently will walk around the residence holding a firearm, will become erratic without warning, and has taken over 11,000 dollars from her with the 'promise' of paying her back.

[redacted] stated she did not allow the responding deputies to view the entire footage only a portion of it from the night of the incident documented under case #26-119257. [redacted] then allowed me to view the ring camera in its entirety.

At approximately 1930 hours the video begins with [redacted] cleaning and Nicholas starting to cook dinner. The two bicker back and forth but nothing is serious. Nicholas then says he does not want her to have a job with cute doctors at this point he picks up the firearm lying on the kitchen table. The table is only three feet in length. [redacted] is standing diagonally from Nicholas on the other side of the table only three feet away. Nicholas's back is towards the camera and his hands are hidden due to the camera angle. The firearm then goes off and directly into the table the bullet then seems to travel up into the front doorframe. Nicholas stands in silence for a moment as [redacted] jumps onto the living room area next to the kitchen and lies on the floor crying. Nicholas checks on [redacted] asking if she is okay. This was the end of the video initial deputies saw.

As the video continues, Nicholas never apologies and starts to become angry with [redacted] reaction. After a few moments, [redacted] begins to clean up the mess it made, as she is doing this, she is explaining that Nicholas does not understand the severity of what he just did. The video continues for another five to ten minutes. After this, Nicholas's behavior starts to intensify, he becomes aggressive and frustrated with [redacted] reaction to the gun going off only three feet from her. Nicholas calls her names including, "stupid bitch, cunt, whore, and fucking dumb ass".

At this point Nicholas is standing by the kitchen sink and [redacted] is standing off to the side. Nicholas turns towards [redacted] steps in her direction and raises his fist as if to punch her. [redacted] walks the other way and continues to clean. Nicholas follows her around the living area and raises his fist towards her multiple times throughout the video. [redacted] flinches and tries to create distance every time. Another specific time happens after they separate for a moment, she comes back into frame and Nicholas continues to yell at her, he then raises his fist again at her while flinching towards her. Throughout this video footage she asks him several times if he is going to hit her.

During this interaction, Nicholas is seen with his head right against [redacted] head, [redacted] stated in the video "are you really going to headbutt me". I asked [redacted] as I was viewing the video footage what he did and she confirmed he head butted her.

Later in the video, [redacted] walks away from the living room out of sight, she starts to come back into frame but Nicholas walks up towards her and blocks the video he is then seen throwing her belongings to the side. I asked [redacted] what was going on here, she stated he snatched her purse and phone from her and threw it on the ground as he saw she might be trying to leave. The video continues and the viewer can hear sounds of a physical disturbance but can not see them. I then asked what happened here and [redacted] stated he hit or grabbed me, my entire chest hurt the following day. Upon continuing the video, you can hear [redacted] say, "you're hurting me", Nicholas then says, "I just grabbed you".

[redacted] and Nicholas get into another argument about her leaving but he ultimately tells her to go. Through the footage he is not seen blocking the door or preventing her from leaving.

The incident ends once [redacted] walks out, then moments later comes back, grabs her phone, leave again and is able to notify law enforcement.

[redacted] is 5'4, approximately 150lbs and Nicholas is 6'0, approximately 210lbs of pure muscle. While there, the victims advocate said one punch by Nicholas could probably kill her [redacted] agreed and said "he says that all the time".

After explaining additional resources including the dv shelter we left the residence.

I then contacted Sergeant Stanley who was able to make contact with our Homeland Security Unit. They were advised of the above incident and a plan was put into place to apprehend the suspect.

[redacted] mentioned Nicholas is on probation in reference to DUI charges, this is being handled under Court Case #2026CT006289A01. This was confirmed through the Confirmation Case Information System (CCIS). One of his requirements is to remain at liberty without violating any laws, federal/state statutes or county/municipal ordinances. At approximately 1630 hours, I contacted court probation who also verified this information and stated it would be a violation of his probation to commit any offense.

At approximately 1515 hours, Nicholas arrived at 7400 20th Street where he was observed holding [redacted] hand and pulling her around the parking lot looking for me. When he would change direction, he would pull on her hand causing her to follow similar to training a dog. The suspect came up to my vehicle, I asked him to fill out a statement while Deputy Binner stood by for officer safety and then started walking with the victim back towards the front of the building. The take down team including Sgt. Jorger and Deputy Crawford along with Deputy Binner ultimately detained Nicholas.

I read Nicholas Miranda and asked if he would be willing to speak with me. He advised he was not willing however he then started asking questions. After explaining his charges and first appearance he continued asking questions. Due to him invoking his rights no further statements were made by me and he was transported by Deputy Crawford to the Indian River County Jail.

At approximately 2045 hours, RTCC ran Nicholas's Criminal History showing a Nolle Prosequi for a domestic violence battery under court case #132011MM5193A000XX. Nicholas was subject to a diversion program and had to pay court fees.

Based on the totality of the circumstances, including the victim's statements and the video footage obtained during the investigation, I determined there was probable cause to believe Nicholas Schneider committed the following offenses.

The video footage depicts Nicholas raising his fist toward [redacted] on two separate occasions in a threatening manner. [redacted] reactions, which included flinching, physically distancing herself from Nicholas, and verbally questioning whether he intended to strike her, further support that she had a well-founded fear of imminent violence.

Additionally, Nicholas intentionally made physical contact with [redacted] against her will by forcibly grabbing her and headbutting her, causing physical harm. These actions support two separate incidents of battery, as documented during the investigation. Upon further investigation it was discovered Nicholas has a prior Nolle Prosequi on his record for Domestic Battery.

Nicholas also intentionally took property from [redacted] person without her consent, depriving her of possession of the property. [redacted] became aware of the taking as it occurred, supporting the elements of robbery by sudden snatching.

Furthermore, it was determined, Nicholas is in violation of his probation where it states he is to remain at liberty without violating any laws.

Based on the above facts and circumstances, I determined probable cause exists for the following offenses:

- Domestic Violence Assault (2 counts), pursuant to F.S. 784.011.
- Domestic Violence Battery, Second or Subsequent Offense (2 counts), pursuant to F.S. 784.041.2b
- Robbery by Sudden Snatching, pursuant to F.S. 812.131.
- Violation of Probation, pursuant to F.S. 948.06.

The undersigned certifies and swears that he/she has just and reasonable grounds to believe that the above named defendant committed the following violation of law:

On 11/05/2026 , at 18:08 (Specifically include facts constituting cause for arrest.)

PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

On November 5th, 2026, at 1808 hours, I Officer. Dietrich responded to 14th avenue and 21st street, in reference to an irate male, who was yelling at individuals of the public and knocking over traffic cones near a construction zone. The complainant advised the irate male was wearing pajama pants and an unzipped jacket revealing his stomach.

Upon arrival officers located an individual matching the description given from dispatch, located sitting on a bench in front of Downtown Dipper Ice Cream Shop, 2036 14th avenue suite # 101. Upon making contact with the individual, he appeared to be sitting slouched back on the bench and falling asleep. While attempting to talk to the individual he would not respond to my questions and his eyes appeared to be very glossy and bloodshot. Upon asking for his identification multiple times the individual began to yell, claiming he did not have his wallet and that officers had it already. It should be noted that officers did not have anything belonging to Jenkins at this time. The individual then advised his name was Edward F. Jenkins. While Jenkins was talking, I observed Jenkins slurring his words. I also smelled an odor of an alcoholic beverage emanating from Jenkins's breath.

While officers were talking to Jenkins, the owner (identified as Vincenzo Iengo) of Focaccia 14th Ave, 2036 14th Avenue suite # 102, came outside of his establishment to see if everything was okay. Upon asking Mr. Iengo if he had observed Jenkins causing a disruption, Mr. Iengo claimed he did. Mr. Iengo advised Jenkins came into the establishment around 1700 hours and ate two slices of pizza and began to raise his voice at the employees. Jenkins then left the establishment without paying for the pizza.
Mr. Iengo advised he did not want to press charges regarding the unpaid pizza, he wanted the male to leave and not disrupt the business any further.

The juvenile employee at Downtown Dipper Ice Cream advised officers that she observed the defendant yelling outside of the business and acting irate.

Dispatch then informed me of a previous incident that occurred at 1629 hours (reference VBPD case # 26-010869). During this earlier incident, there was an additional complaint regarding Jenkins being intoxicated and causing a disturbance in the same area Downtown. This resulted in an individual calling law enforcement and complaining about Jenkins. Jenkins was warned by officers and told to depart from the area.

After conducting my investigation into what had occurred, I proceeded to place Jenkins under arrest for disorderly intoxication. I asked Jenkins if he had anything on his person that could injure me, or that I should be aware about. Jenkins ignored me and then replied, "find out yourself". While searching Jenkins, I discovered a brass pipe with what appeared to be burnt marijuana residue in his front right jacket pocket. I also discovered a very small amount of marijuana leaf located in the same pocket. Jenkins was then transported to Indian River County Jail. Jenkins was charged with F.S.S 856.011 Disorderly Intoxication along with F.S.S 893.147(1) Use or possession of drug paraphernalia.

My department issued body worn camera was activated during this altercation and uploaded to evidence library.

The drug paraphernalia was collected and turned over to property for evidence.

Case Report # 2026-00120034

NARRATIVE

On November 5th, 2026, 1814 hours, Corporal Chamberlain and I were patrolling the 9500 block of State Road 60, Vero Beach, Florida, when he observed a white cargo van bearing Florida tag 33FZEW exiting the Wawa gas station. The vehicle stopped past the marked stop line at the stop sign, blocking traffic.

Before conducting a traffic stop, a query through D.A.V.I.D. revealed that the vehicle's registered owner, Pascual Antonio Osorio Francisco, had a suspended driver's license, with a suspension date of October 19th, 2026.

A traffic stop was conducted, and I made contact with the driver, identified as Osorio. I informed him of the reason for the stop and requested his driver's license, registration, and proof of insurance. Osorio stated that he lived in Orlando and was in Vero Beach for work.

When I informed Osorio that his driver's license was suspended, he stated that it was probably because he had not paid a speeding citation issued approximately one or two months earlier.

A further query through D.A.V.I.D. listed Osorio's driver's license as suspended effective October 19th, 2026, for failure to pay a traffic penalty associated with citation AO0D4EE from Osceola County, Florida. A separate records search through the Osceola County Clerk of Court and Comptroller showed that the citation was issued for speeding in Kissimmee, Florida, on August 2nd, 2026, and a D6 was issued on September 18th, 2026.

Based on the totality of the circumstances, Osorio was taken into custody and transported the Indian River County Jail for driving while driver's license suspended/revoked, in accordance with F.S.S. 322.34.2b.

INDIAN RIVER COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE ARREST AFFIDAVIT 4055 41st Ave Vero Beach,. Florida 32960	Arrest Affidavit Report Case Report # 2026-00120023

NARRATIVE

On November 5, 2026 at approximately 1752 hours, I, Deputy Gadacz responded to 2950 9th Street SW (Aldi's), Vero Beach, Florida 32968, in reference to a disturbance.

Upon arrival, I made contact with [redacted] who advised she had been battered by an unknown black female suspect. The unknown black female was later identified as Zoie Lakecia Marsh. [redacted] advised she came to the store with [redacted] Emili Rosana De Rosa and her sister. [redacted] advised the incident started inside the store when they were attempting to purchase their items. While checking out with the cashier, the employee observed the customer behind them placing items on the counter, and the items were blending in with theirs. The employee asked [redacted] if the additional items were theirs, and advised no. [redacted] stated she asked to people behind her if they could separate, their items from theirs.

[redacted] advised they purchased their items and proceeded to their vehicle. Once at their vehicle, they started loading they items into the vehicle, that is when [redacted] advised Marsh parked her vehicle next to theirs. The Marsh started screaming at her and then exited her vehicle. Once out of her vehicle, the Marsh walked up to her and pushed her into her vehicle. The Marsh proceeded to punch her in the face several time and then grabbed her by the hair.

[redacted] advised her mother and an unknown male who was the passenger in Marsh's vehicle, attempted to break up the altercation. The unknown male was later identified as Charles Lamont Green Senior. [redacted] stated once they were separated, [redacted] advised Marsh returned to her vehicle and grabbed a hammer from the vehicle [redacted] stated Marsh then attempted to hit her with the hammer but Green interfered with her swing, stopping the hammer from hitting her. [redacted] advised Green was finally was able to convince Marsh to get into her vehicle and they left the area.

[redacted] had a small cut on her left hand and I did not observe any marks or bruising on her face. [redacted] advised she did not want any medical treatment at that time and provided a video of Marsh having the hammer in her hands outside of her vehicle. A community request was sent to [redacted] for the video. [redacted] advised she wishes to prosecute Zoie Marsh.

I made contact with Emili Rosana De Rosa, who corroborated [redacted] statement.

While speaking with [redacted] Marsh contacted law enforcement and advised dispatch of her location. I went and made contact with Marsh at 1280 11th Avenue SW, Vero Beach, Florida 32962, which is her aunt's house. I advised Marsh that I would speak with her momentarily, because I was going to speak with Green first.

NARRATIVE (Continuation)

I made contact with Green, who advised the incident started at the store, while they were in the line to check out. After purchasing their items, they proceeded to Marsh's vehicle. Once in the vehicle, Marsh drives over to [redacted] vehicle. Marsh exited her vehicle and started a verbal altercation. Green stated moments later, they started fighting. Green advised he does not know who throw the first punch, but he tried breaking up the fight. Green advised Marsh was pulling [redacted] hair, when he finally was able to break up the fight. Green advised Marsh went to her vehicle and grabbed a rubber mallet from her driver's door. Green stated he told Marsh to get into her vehicle so they could leave because he wanted to go home. Marsh got into her vehicle and drove them to their aunt's house.

I made contact with Zoie Lakecia Marsh, who advised she was involved in the altercation at Aldi's. I read Marsh her Miranda Warning and she advised she understood her rights. Marsh advised [redacted] started videoing her inside the store and started talking about her. Marsh advised once she was done inside the store. She entered her vehicle and was going to drive over to [redacted] to see why she was being rude to her. Marsh stated when she was driving up to [redacted] vehicle. [redacted] threw something at her vehicle and that is what made her stop her vehicle.

When she came to complete stop, she tried exiting the vehicle, but [redacted] attacked her before she could fully exit the vehicle [redacted] started punching her, so she was trying to defend herself. The fight was broken up and she entered her vehicle. Marsh stated [redacted] mentioned a gun, so she grabbed her rubber mallet when she was in her vehicle. Marsh advised she never exited the vehicle with the mallet. Marsh advised she did not see a firearm, but advised see saw [redacted] mother grab her cell phone. Marsh advised when they finally left the scene, [redacted] threw something at her vehicle, but does not know what it was.

I asked Marsh why were there differences in her statement compared to everyone else's statements. Marsh advised she does not know but changed some of her statement. Marsh advised nothing was thrown at her vehicle to make her stop. She advised she wanted to confront [redacted] about her attitude. I proceeded to ask Marsh, why did [redacted] have a video of her with mallet outside of vehicle, when she stated she never exited the vehicle with the mallet. Marsh advised she does not know and does not remember that.

I asked Marsh if she wanted to prosecute [redacted] for criminal mischief for throwing something at her vehicles back window. Marsh stated no since nothing was damaged. Marsh signed a declination of intent and a consent to search her vehicle for the mallet. I collected the mallet from the vehicle and it was later submitted into evidence.

Arrest Affidavit Report

Case Report # 2026-00120083

NARRATIVE

On Thursday, November 5, 2026, at approximately 2029 hours, I was patrolling in the area of 2600 block of 45th street, Vero Beach, Florida, 32967, when I observed a silver SUV bearing Florida registration of TAMJ92 driving east on 45th street with no lights on the rear of the vehicle. I activated my emergency light and conducted a traffic stop on that vehicle.

I identified the driver as Eric Brown by his Florida driver's license. When I ran his license over the radio, I was advised he had an active warrant out of Jackson Florida for failing to pay child support. The Hitt response stated the warrant is Active order of contempt and Writ of attachment on administrative order with a $2,800 purge, with a case number of 18-430DR.

I attempted to look up the case through Jackson County court website but was unable to locate the actual court case number.

I asked for dispatch to send the hit and it was confirmed. He was taken into custody and transported to the Indian River County jail where he was turned over to jail staff.
