MARSY'S LAW

[redacted]

The undersigned certifies and swears that he/she has just and reasonable grounds to believe that the above named defendant committed the following violation of law:

On , at (Specifically include facts constituting cause for arrest.)

PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

On 11/09/2026, at approximately 0913 hours, I was dispatched to [redacted] reference to a disturbance/fight. While enroute, Sebastian Communications advised the complainant/victim, later identified as [redacted] claimed the suspect, [redacted] later identified as Freddie Smith, fought her and pulled her hair.

Upon arrival, I observed a black female outside the residence, who was later determined to be the complainant/victim, [redacted] I made contact with [redacted] in the driveway of the residence [redacted] appeared to be very emotional, in distress, and physically injured [redacted] was crying, breathing heavy, and I observed blood coming from the top right of her head. When asked, [redacted] claimed Freddie, pulled her hair out, which was consistent with the physical injuries I observed.

While attempting to obtain an initial statement from [redacted] Freddie exited his residence while yelling at [redacted] and officers on scene. I then made contact with Freddie at the front door of the residence. Freddie stated he did not want talk about the incident, he did not want [redacted] to go to jail, and he possessed video of the incident however, he would not show the video to law enforcement. Freddie also did not allow officers to enter the residence to search for additional evidence. It should be noted while speaking to Freddie, he continued to act belligerently.

Due to the above circumstances, Freddie was placed into mechanical restraints, which were double locked and checked for proper fit, and detained. Post Miranda warning, Freddie stated the following in summary: On today's date, at approximately the time of this call, Freddie and [redacted] got into an argument. The argument was in reference to [redacted] wanting to take Freddie's car to work, but he would not let her. Freddie claimed [redacted] began breaking things inside the residence, including a fish tank, at which point she slipped and her hair got pulled out. [redacted] then called law enforcement [redacted]

Subsequent contact was made with th[redacted] who stated the following in summary: On today's date, at approximately the time of this call, an argument ensued between Freddie and her. The argument was in reference to [redacted] wanting to use Freddie's car to go to work however, Freddie was not allowing it. [redacted] admitted to breaking a table that belonged to both Freddie and her [redacted] claimed Freddie pushed her, grabbed her head, and pulled hair off her head [redacted]

Due to the sworn statement b[redacted] the physical injuries on her person corroborating her statement, Freddie's lack of cooperation to show video of the incident, nor allow officers inside the residence to search for additional evidence [redacted] I find there is sufficient probable cause to charge Freddie for being in violation of FSS 784.03(1a1): BATTERY TOUCH OR STRIKE (DOMESTIC VIOLENCE).

Freddie was transported to the Indian River County Jail without further incident.

INDIAN RIVER COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE ARREST AFFIDAVIT 4055 41st Ave Vero Beach, Florida 32960	Arrest Affidavit Report Case Report # 2026-00121338

NARRATIVE

On Monday, 11/09/2026, at approximately 1720, I responded to [redacted] in reference to a physical disturbance.

Upon arrival I made contact with the victim [redacted], outside of her apartment. [redacted] stated that [redacted] Aubry Nicole Henry, got upset with her because she was removing her property from the residence [redacted] told Henry that she did not want Henry to [redacted], which upset Henry, causing her to strike Henry in the face.

I observed swelling just below [redacted] right eye, consistent with her story. I took a picture of the swelling using Axon Capture and uploaded it to evidence.com. At the time of this investigation, [redacted]

[redacted] stated that Henry left on foot wearing a black jumpsuit and black fur boots. I was notified by the Indian River County Sheriff's Office Real Time Crime Center that they observed a female matching Henry's description walking westbound on 45th street. This information was relayed over Channel one, which Deputy Haffield was then able to locate Henry. After I finished speaking with [redacted] responded to Deputy Haffield to make contact with Henry. I advised Henry of her Miranda rights, which she voluntarily waived and agreed to speak with me.

Henry stated that the argument started when [redacted] put her clothes outside of the apartment. Henry stated that when she confronted [redacted] about the incident, [redacted] got upset and struck her in the face. Henry at first stated she did not hit or touch [redacted] back after being struck in the face. I confronted Henry about the mark on [redacted] face, which she then stated that she punched [redacted] in the chest after she was hit in the face. Henry stated she blacked out from being hit in the face and couldn't recall the details of the incident clearly. I observed no marks on Henry's face, however Henry had white dust from the asphalt on her legs. Henry stated she was dragged on the ground by [redacted] and that is what caused the white dust to get on her legs.

After speaking with Henry, I went back to [redacted] to re-interview [redacted] about the incident. I advised [redacted] of her Miranda rights, which she voluntarily waived and agreed to speak with me. [redacted] stated that Henry got upset with the clothing being outside, which caused her to strike [redacted] in the face. [redacted] stated she backed up from Henry and told her that she was going to [redacted] to report the incident. Henry continued to scuffle with [redacted] which resulted in the altercation going to the ground. [redacted] had dust and dirt on her clothing, consistent with this story.

I made contact with an independent witness, Tyhesia Stafford, who is the neighbor of [redacted] Stafford advised me she observed the entire altercation. Stafford first noticed the argument when Henry and [redacted] started yelling about the clothing. Stafford advised she saw Henry strike [redacted] in the face first, which then prompted [redacted] to back up. Stafford stated the altercation continued until [redacted] could separate from Henry. Once separated, Henry walked northbound leaving the community.

Based on the totality of the circumstances, I placed Aubry Nicole Henry under arrest for a violation of the following offenses:

Upon arrival, I made contact with loss prevention employee, Joey Tontillo who advised the following in summary:

On video footage, the suspect later identified as Jessica Fishkin could be observed walking throughout the store with a shopping cart and placing items inside of the cart like a routine shopping trip. Jessica continued to pay for a box of Kleenex and a bushel of bananas, and then attempted to leave the store, passing all points of sale without paying for the rest of the items inside of her shopping cart. Joey confronted her at the exit of the store and Jessica cooperated with him and went inside of the loss prevention office until law enforcement arrival.

Jessica provided Joey with a consensual written statement in regards to the incident, where she stated the following:

"I came to Target with money for some items from my roommate. I did what I was told to, earn extra cash. My mom is hospitalized for mental health. I work and pay bills but have no money to eat. I collected items on my roommates list, paid for what I could and tried to walk out. I've never been in trouble before and work with kids on the spectrum. I'm sorry for my actions. This will not happen again."

Jessica corroborated this written statement and told me the same thing in summary. The total dollar amount for the items taken and not paid for was $309.75. An itemized receipt was provided to me and showed as follows:

Apparel

- Up&up = $2.99

- Annie Chun's = $3.39

- 2x Counter = $6.99
- 3x FD Trail mix = $14.97

Arrest Affidavit Report

Case Report # 2026-00121370

NARRATIVE

On November 9th, 2026 at approximately 2040 hours, I responded to the 600 block of 1st Street Southwest in Vero Beach, Florida in reference to an intoxicated person. While enroute to the location, Indian River County Sheriff's Office (IRCSO) Public Safety Distpach (PSD) advised that the caller, Molly Broughman, stated that a white female, who was possibly intoxicated, was standing in the middle of the road.

Upon arrival, I observed an unknown race female and a white female, later identified as Julia Lederer, walking south in the southbound bicycle lane of the 100 block of Old Dixie Highway Southwest. After I parked my patrol vehicle, I was approached by the unknown race female, who advised that she was involved in a disturbance with Julia Lederer after attempting to help her. The unknown female stated that she believed that Julia Lederer was intoxicated as well. I was unable to identify the unknown female due to her leaving the area before speaking with her further.

I made contact with Julia Lederer, who was both acting erratically and emotionally distraught. While speaking with her, I observed that she was constantly fidgeting and unable to stand still. I also observed her at one point to "nod off," which I was able to identify based on prior knowledge, training, and experience as a temporary loss of consciousness due to opiate use. When questioned about this, Julia Lederer denied any narcotic use, but admitted to consuming two glasses of wine.

I attempted to assist Julia Lederer in contacting someone to retrieve her, as I believed that due to her intoxicated state it was unsafe for her to continue walking. She was unable to assist me in doing so due to not being able to recall anyone's telephone number. I then asked her where she lived, and she provided a generic address of 17th Street and 37th Avenue in Vero Beach. She refused for me to transport her to this location after I explained that I would need to search her person in accordance with my agency's policies and procedures prior to doing so.

I took Julia Lederer into custody for disorderly intoxication. While conducting a search incident to arrest of her purse she was carrying, I located a coin purse that contained multiple pieces of tin foil with burnt residue and multiple red straws that had been cut at an angle. Based on my knowledge, training, and experience, I identified these items as being used to ingest narcotics.

I made contact with Julia Lederer, and advised her of her Miranda Rights. After agreeing to speak with me, she admitted to using methamphetamine and fentanyl, and stated that she had last used them within the past couple days. She also admitted to using the paraphernalia I had located to inject these narcotics.

IRCSO Deputy Michael Ciofalo transported Julia Lederer to the IRCSO Jail without incident.
