Case Report #

NARRATIVE

INTRODUCTION:

On Tuesday, November 3, 2026, at approximately 0915 hours, your affiant was traveling in the area of 6500 block of US-1 northbound when Indian River County Sheriff's Office (IRCSO), Public Safety Dispatch (PSD), advised Captain Clifford Labbe was conducting a felony traffic stop on a vehicle which was being operated by a white male who reportedly was the suspect of an exhibition of a weapon. Captain Labbe advised the vehicle, a 2020 Chevrolet Silverado, color white, bearing FL tag KT689N, was stopped westbound on 65th St., Vero Beach.

IRCSO PSD reported the victim, [redacted] at approximately 0843 hours, and reported he was operating his vehicle, a white Ford Excursion, bearing FL tag RVSF93, traveling south on 58th St. near 53rd Ave.,. As [redacted] approached 53rd Ave, a white Chevrolet Silverado pulled alongside him on the left. The operator of the Silverado swerved towards [redacted] vehicle in an aggressive manner. [redacted] stated the operator of the Silverado yelled at him through the open passenger's side window and pointed a firearm at him.

[redacted] advised the Silverado passed him and continued to travel south on US-1 [redacted] advised PSD the Silverado had a FL tag KT689N. [redacted] maintained a distance but continue to have visual of the Silverado as it turned east on 49th St.. The vehicle traveled east on 49th St. and turned north on 43rd Ave. [redacted] maintained visual and relayed to PSD the vehicle turned east on 53rd St. and then north on Old Dixie [redacted] stated the Silverado accelerated to approximately 100 mph north on Old Dixie which is when [redacted] lost visual of the vehicle.

[redacted] stopped at Fire Station 5 and remained there until law enforcement arrival.

Captain Labbe advised he observed the white Chevrolet Silverado, bearing FL tag KT689N, traveling east on 65th where he conducted a felony traffic stop.

INVESTIGATIVE ACTIONS:

Your affiant responded to Fire Station 5 and met with [redacted] stated he was traveling south on 58th Ave behind his employee who was operating a classic vehicle [redacted] was restoring. Due to the classic vehicle driving slowly [redacted] pulled into the right lane as the classic vehicle continued in the left lane. [redacted] stated he observed the white Silverado behind him as he changed lanes. The Silverado passed between [redacted] vehicle on the left. As the Silverado pulled alongside [redacted] vehicle, the operator of the Silverado yelled at [redacted] through the open front passenger's side window. [redacted] said he yelled at the operator of the Silverado and then observed the operator point a handgun at him. [redacted] said the operator lowered the firearm slightly and appeared to pull the slide back before pointing the gun back at [redacted] said he then slammed on his breaks in fear of being shot. [redacted] stated he was in fear for his life and afraid if he did not report the incident, the operator of the Silverado could be a danger to someone else.

NARRATIVE

[redacted] and provided the Silverado's location as he maintained a safe distance.

[redacted] advised your affiant, the vehicle was a four door white Chevrolet Silverado. The [redacted] stated the operator of the vehicle who brandished the firearm was a white or light skinned Hispanic male, approximately 30 years of age with a full dark beard. [redacted] stated the firearm was possibly a Tec 9mm with a suppressor, dark gray or black in color with an extended magazine [redacted] denied seeing any additional occupants of the vehicle.

Your affiant was advised by Sergeant Luis Avila, the operator of the vehicle was detained and denied the incident. The operator of the vehicle was identified by his FL driver's license to be Johnathan Kerr, a white male born July 31, 1990. Your affiant was advised Kerr refused to consent to a search his vehicle for the firearm. Your affiant requested Corporal Morgan Hatton respond to her location and transport [redacted] to Kerr's location for a show up.

Your affiant followed Corporal Hatton as he transported [redacted] to Kerr's location. Corporal Hatton stated [redacted] positively identified Kerr and as the subject that pointed the firearm at him in a threatening manner.

Your affiant met with Kerr who, post Miranda, stated he was traveling south on US-1 to go to Lowe's 6110 20th St., Vero Beach. Kerr said [redacted] who was operating a white truck, pulled in front of him on US-1 north, cutting him off. Kerr said he passed [redacted] on the left and the two exchanged curse words. Kerr said he turned east on 49th St and noticed [redacted] was following him. Your affiant asked Kerr, if he was going to Lowe's, why did he turn east on 49th St., Kerr said he wanted to see if [redacted] would follow him. Kerr provided the same path of travel as [redacted] relayed to PSD.

Your affiant asked Kerr why he was traveling away from his destination, he said he decided to go to the transfer station on 65th St. Kerr said when he finally approached the transfer station, 3955, 65th St., Vero Beach, he changed his mind and did not stop.

Kerr said he continued traveling east on 65th when he observed law enforcement activate their emergency red and blue lights behind him and then pulled over for the traffic stop.

NARRATIVE

Kerr advised your affiant he was previously arrested for possession of illegal substances but was not a convicted felon. Kerr admitted to owning a shot gun and a 9mm hand gun but denied having a firearm in his vehicle. Your affiant informed Kerr, his vehicle would be towed to the IRCSO compound pending a search warrant of the vehicle. Your affiant informed Kerr, he would be transported to the IRCSO Criminal Investigation Division, while the search warrant was being drafted.

Kerr informed your affiant she could search his vehicle and then stated he refused the search and asked to contact a lawyer.

Your affiant was advised by IRCSO Real Time Crime Center (RTCC), Kerr had past felony charges but was not a convicted felon.

Kerr's 2020 Chevrolet Silverado, bearing FL tag KT689N was towed to the secured compound at the IRCSO Compound, 3885 41st St., Vero Beach.

Your affiant drafted a vehicle search warrant which was approved and signed by the Honorable Judge Robert Stone.

On Tuesday, November 3, 2026, your affiant and Crime Scene Detective Daniel Rosario executed the vehicle search warrant.

During the execution of the search warrant, your affiant located a Masterpiece Arms 9mm firearm, color black with a suppressor attached as well as an extended magazine, in the truck bed tool box. Your affiant also located a live, 9mm hollow point round on the front passenger's seat floor board. The location of the live round found on the front floor board corroborated [redacted] statement that Kerr pulled the slide of the firearm back while pointing it at him across the front passenger's side seat.

It should be noted, the Masterpiece Arms 9mm is extremely similar in appearance as a Tec-9 firearm.

CRIMINAL CHARGES:

This investigation revealed that Jonathan Kerr did violate F.S.S. §784.021, Assault with a deadly weapon.

Case Report # 2026-00119228

NARRATIVE

On Tuesday, November 3, 2026, at approximately 1819 hours, Corporal Hackett and I responded to [redacted] in reference to a disturbance.

Upon arrival, I made contact with Peter Knapp, who stated the following in substance:

He was visiting friends who are [redacted] at the above-listed address. He admitted he and the other individuals had consumed alcoholic beverages while socializing on the front patio of the residence. He and the victim, [redacted] became involved in a verbal altercation regarding personal responsibility and making payments to [redacted] roommates. The argument escalated, at which point [redacted] punched him in the face with a closed fist and struck him in the lower abdominal area. He then struck [redacted] in response, claiming his actions were in self-defense. He denied chokin[redacted] at any point during the incident. I examined Peter face for injuries. I observed a red mark above his left eye, which he stated he sustained while walking through the woods. I did not observe any marks or injuries consistent with his statement that he was punched in the face with a closed fist.

I then made contact with [redacted] who had been detained by Corporal Lang and Deputy Magnetti upon my arrival due to his confrontational behavior and failing to listen to commands. Due to [redacted] anguage barrier, Deputy Saint-Eloi along with Indian River County Sheriff's Office language line assisted with translating his statement. [redacted] provided the following statement in substance:

He and his roommates were gathered on the patio when a verbal altercation occurred between him and Peter regarding percieved financial responsibilities. He further explained Peter became upset because he was speaking with his son, who was in Haiti, via phone. Peter believed he was sending money to his son, which further escalated the disagreement. The two exchanged words before Peter grabbed him by the throat with one hand and began choking him.

[redacted] stated he never experienced any difficulty breathing or loss of consciousness during the incident. He further advised his roommate witnessed Peter choking him during the physical altercation and requested law enforcement speak with the witness.

I made contact with the witness, Rogel Pierre, who was asleep inside the residence. Rogel also required translation assistance due to a language barrier and stated the following in substance:

He heard [redacted] and Peter arguing back and forth. When he exited his bedroom, he observed Peter aggressively choking [redacted] by the neck. He explained he was unable to physically intervene because he was weak due to an illness. He further stated he did not want to become involved in the altercation between the two individuals, so he returned to his bedroom.

NARRATIVE (Continuation)

During my investigation, I inquired about the availability of surveillance footage. [redacted] vised there were no cameras inside or outside the residence that could have captured the incident.

Based on the statements of the Rogel and [redacted] believed Peter to be the primary aggressor and attempted to ask follow-up questions based on the information received by statements from both parties. I advised him of his constitutional rights using an agency-issued Miranda warning card. Peter stated he understood his rights and did not wish to provide any further statements regarding the incident. Peter motioned with his hand and stated "in the front or the back?"

Based on the totality of the circumstances, I established probable cause that Peter committed the offense of Battery, in violation of Florida Statute 784.03(1)(a)1., by intentionally touching [redacted] against his will.

Peter was placed in handcuffs, which were checked for proper fit and double-locked. He was secured in the rear seat of my marked patrol vehicle and transported to the county jail.

I provided [redacted] with a Victim's Rights packet and resources available to him.
