

Sheriff Eric Flowers INDIAN RIVER COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE

WORTHLESS CHECK PACKET

It is the intent of the Indian River County Sheriff's Office and, specifically, the Economic Crimes component of the Criminal Investigations Unit, to assist individuals and businesses who have been victimized by writers of worthless checks.

Once a worthless check packet is received by you, the victim, an Investigator will make all attempts possible to resolve the matter in a timely manner, prior to Court action being taken. The goal is to make you financially whole.

If the matter is not resolved, the case will be presented to the State Attorney's Office for review. The State Attorney's Office makes the decision whether or not to prosecute. If that office declines to prosecute, the documents you submitted will be returned to you.

In virtually all cases where the check writer is found guilty or pleads guilty in court, restitution is ordered as part of the probation portion of the sentence. Another avenue of collection you can pursue is a civil claim in the Small Claims Court if the amount of the check is less than $5,000.00. Further information on small claims actions can be obtained through the office of the Clerk of the Court.

Please carefully read the information contained in this packet. If you have any questions, contact o u r Economic Crimes Unit at 772-978-6046 or EconomicCrimeAnalyst@ircsheriff.org.

Sheriff Eric Flowers INDIAN RIVER COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE

WORTHLESS CHECK PACKET

I. REQUIREMENTS

- 1. Check must have been given in, received in, or mailed from the jurisdiction of Indian River County.
- 2. Identification of accused. (See Section II.)
- 3. Check must not have been post-dated at the time it was given.
- 4. Taker of the check must not have been asked by the party presenting the check at the time of presentation to hold or delay depositing the check for any period of time.
- 5. If there was any reason to believe the check would not be honored at the time it was presented to the taker, the complaint is a civil matter.
- Check must be plainly marked with the reason for its return by the bank on which it was drawn.
 Dishonored checks are considered checks stamped by the bank as NSF, Insufficient

Funds, Refer to Maker, Account Closed.

Stop payment checks will be stamped by the bank as Payment Stopped or Stop Payment.

Checks marked UNCOLLECTED FUNDS, UNAVAILABLE FUNDS or HOLD ON FUNDS cannot be processed

- 7. A demand letter must be sent to the check writer at their last known address. Dishonored Check Demand Letter is on page 9, Stop Payment Demand Letter is on page 10.) The demand letter can be sent one of two ways:
 - By certified or registered mail, evidenced by return receipt, or
 - by first-class mail, evidenced by an affidavit of service of mail.

The demand letter requirement can be waived if the check is returned for the reason of Account Closed.

If any of these requirements are not met, this agency cannot accept the check for prosecution.

The filing of a worthless check complaint does not guarantee criminal prosecution or restitution.

This agency will not accept Worthless Check Packets if partial payment has been accepted for the worthless check.

II. IDENTIFICATION

Identification of the check writer is the most important requirement of the check taker.

Poor check writer identification information is the most common reason for failure to prosecute worthless check cases. The Sheriff's Office requires certain information about the check writer in order to pursue prosecution, therefore, certain identifying information must be included on the Worthless Check Affidavit.

Identification of the check writer or person presenting the check can be established by ONE the following means:

- 1. Personal recognition The taker of the worthless check knows the check writer and can supply the following information: full name, date of birth, race, sex and last known address. (This information must be provided in order to have a warrant issued), or
- 2. Check writer produced photo identification at the time the check was presented.
 - a. I.D. type and number must be written on the check by the taker. ALSO, the check writer's sex and date of birth, (and home address and phone if not pre-printed on the check) must be obtained. (IMPORTANT: If the I.D. type and number is pre-printed or written on the check by presenter, TAKER MUST VERIFY that the information is correct.)
 - b. Taker of the check must be able to testify that they compared the photo or I.D. to the person presenting the check and they appeared to be one in the same, or
- 3. If your business uses check cashing authorization cards issued by the business taking the check, please contact (772) 978- 6046 for specific requirements, or
- 4. If the check is received by mail or delivery to a representative of the payee, e.g., truck driver, identity may be established by providing the original contract, order or request for services, which bears the signature of the person who signed the check.
